Surplus-Value

By Oskar Negt

Introduction

Surplus-value is extracted in the same sense in one country and internationally and this then is the abstract law of value.

I. Scientific Marxism

It is all about labour as social average in Weber’s sense.

II. Materialism is the inversion to material developments

It is all about material developments.